FATAL FIRE IN TROY

Three Women Are Known to Be Dead.

OTHERS MAY HAVE PERISHED.

In Addition to These Thirteen People Are Badly Injured, Several of Them Fatally. The Property Loss Will Reach $300,000. The Fire Due to a Boy's Carelessness. Names of the Known Victims.

TROY, N. Y., Feb. 18.—A small boy carelessly throwing a match into a pile of oily waste, a blazing mass of flames, 300 girls and women frenzied with fright fighting for life as the flames chased them with hungry tongues, was the beginning of a fire last night that consumed thousands of dollars worth of property and caused the destruction of many lives. From the outside of the high building the first notice of impending disaster was the sight of a body of girls as they rushed out upon the fire escapes from the windows, and those who were more fortunate crawling out the entrance. Following them was a mass of smoke and flames of hot flame in lurid streaks. Then the mass of frenzied humanity finding the egresses too small for instant escape began climbing over the sides of the escapes, and bundles of clothing filled with writhing humanity dropped at the feet of horrified passers-by.

Within 20 minutes after the fire started there were three dead women laid upon the floor of an adjoining store and at least a dozen burned and maimed girls and women taken to the hospital or to their homes.

Of the 350 girls and women in the building it is presumed that at least a half dozen are in the ruins, for it is impossible to locate all.

It was just 30 minutes before closing hours in Stetheimer & Company's shirt waist factory on River street, and the 350 girls and women were working rapidly to finish up. In the cutting room on the fifth floor the 150 girls were closing up their day's assignments and preparing to leave when the whistle blew. Lillian Kreiger, who was working near a machine, called to a small boy to light the gas over her work. The boy struck a match and threw the burning stub to the floor. It struck a pile of oily rags and in an instant the girl was enveloped in flames.

With her clothes and hair burning, she rushed to the window and in an instant the room became a struggling, shrieking mass of humanity, filling the windows, the fire escape and the only stairway. Jamming and pushing, tearing each other clothes from their backs, turning in narrow corridors to find a sister or mother or friend, the number in the exits augmented every second by those from the other floors, these girls and women fought for their lives to get away from the fiery flames that seemed to grow to monstrous size.

With rare presence of mind, Policeman Farrell, who was on the street, seeing that in the panic a number would jump, let down the awning over the entrance. Barely was it down when two or three forms came flying down from the fifth and sixth stories, and bounding from the awning fell to the sidewalk.

Lillian Kreiger, over whose machine the fire started, was one of these. She struck the awning, fell on her back and bounced to her hands and knees on the walk. She got up and staggered about until people helped her to her feet again. By this time nearly every window had a female form dangling from it, and when the firemen arrived there was a hustle to get the ladders up. At the center window on the sixth floor a woman hanging by her hands was forced out by the flames licking in her face. With a last shriek she let go, and came tumbling over and over until she struck the pavement. When picked up it was found that she was Mrs. Margaret Carroll. Her spinal column was forced through into her brain.

Just below her in another window hung a woman turning appealing glances to the crowd. The black smoke was pouring from the window, but as yet no flames were visible and the crowd yelled encouragingly to her to hold on, but a higher red flame reached out just then and licked her face, and in an instant her body was rebounding from the pavement. She was Mrs. Foley, a widow, and when picked up was dead.

On the same floor, hanging from another window, was a woman, and salvation in the shape of a ladder was most within her grasp when her strength failed and she went twirling down to death. She was Mrs. Kane.

The firemen and police worked like heroes and to their energy was due a great saving of life. At least a dozen women and girls were carried down the ladders or dragged out of the corridors, the officers and firemen going into the midst of the smoke and flames.

The fire burned so fiercely by this time that no detailed search of the building could be made and from what can be learned there were many girls and women on the three upper stories, either lying in fainting fits or overcome by smoke. It was this fact that led to the rumors that there were at least 20 women dead and the story even at this writing does not seem improbable.

The flames ate down through three floors so quickly that the Western Union Telegraph company, Jessup & Goop, and Crocker company and Van Zant & Jacobs' collar manufactory had no time to save anything.

One house, after the fire started, caught from the falling of a portion of the roof, and from it small buildings on the south caught.

About 8 o'clock the firemen heard shrieks coming from the 2-story building on the south, they discovered an Italian peddler named Joseph Rossi, who kept a stand in front of the building, pinioned by the legs under a heavy beam. Three policemen started to assist him, and with a fireman worked for three-quarters of an hour. They had just about gotten him loose when with a roar the great south walls came crashing down and the horrified spectators saw the brave little group buried from view. When the smoke and dust had cleared, there was a rush of willing workers and in a little while the men were taken out. All were injured, and had to be removed to the hospital. The Italian will probably die, but the brave policeman while badly hurt, will recover.

Superintendent Willard of the police force says that he saw a number of girls at windows who never came out, but fell back into the flames. One fireman who was working from the rear saw three girls with their arms wound tightly about each other, turn in their frenzy and jump back into the flames. Some of the women who escaped tell of stumbling over prostrate bodies, and are supposed that a score of girls perished. The girls who did escape live in various suburban places and hurried away, so that it will be some time before the exact number of missing will be known.

Lottie and Nellie Hull, sisters, grasped each other tightly by the hands and started by the stairs from the sixth story. At the landing of the fifth floor they encountered a wall of flame and smoke. Nellie had on only her corsets and skirt, having been making her toilet. Lottie, who was also partially dressed, threw her dress over Nellie's face, and together they went through the flames. Lottie's hair was burned completely off when she reached the sidewalk, but Nellie was burned only about her bare arms. They were taken home.

The total loss by the fire is from $250,000 to $300,000, with about $100,000 insurance. At least 500 people are thrown out of employment. The firemen worked with the thermometer down below zero and suffered very much.

The coroners were summoned and a jury impaneled to care for the dead. Following is a list of unfortunates obtainable up to the present time.

The dead are:
Mrs. Margaret Carroll, jumped from window.

Mrs. Foley, jumped from window.
Mrs. Robert Kane, jumped from window.

The injured are:
Mamie Day, jumped and badly hurt.

Amette Harrington, badly burned.
Lillian Oathout, burned.

Mamie Rourke, burned.
Lillian Kreiger, burned and badly bruised.

James Quinn, under wall; will die.
Mrs. Johnston, badly burned; will die.

Frank Rossi, Italian, bruised by falling wall.
Policeman Burke, bruised by falling wall.

Policeman Watson, bruised by falling wall.
Fireman McGuire, bruised by falling wall.

Lottie Hull, severely burned.
Nellie Hull, badly bruised.

Missing and probably dead:
Mamie Danks.
Katie O'Connor.
Miss O'Neill.
Miss Hebbescher.

BOSTON BLAZE.
The Old Colony Express Office and Other Property Destroyed.

BOSTON, Feb. 18.—The express office of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company (Old Colony division) on Kneeland street, was burned yesterday, about 300 feet of the outer trainhouse destroyed and 40 feet of the main depot shed damaged. Six passenger coaches were practically destroyed and several badly damaged. The main depot, containing the waiting rooms and offices of the system, was not injured. The loss is estimated at $50,000. The weather was intensely cold.

James Peyer, aged 17, a messenger for the New York and Boston Dispatch Express company, was badly burned about the head, face and hands while trying to save some of the goods from the office of the company. He was taken to the hospital. The fire is thought to have originated in the oil-room.

Burned in a Boardinghouse.
BRADFORD, Pa., Feb. 18.—At Westline, this county, yesterday, a boardinghouse connected with Elisha Kane's sawmill, caught fire and burned to the ground. Peter Benson, a woodsman, asleep in an upstairs room, was burned to death. His arms and legs were burned off and his features charred beyond recognition. George W. Haskins and wife, proprietors of the boardinghouse, were painfully burned about the face and hands. Benson was a single man and a native of Sweden.

Leather Destroyed by Fire.
BOSTON, Feb. 18.—Fire broke out yesterday on the fourth floor of the 5-story brick building 59 South street, owned by the French estate, and occupied by several leather firms for storage and warehousing. The flames spread to all on both the upper stories. The total loss is estimated at between $40,000 and $50,000; fully insured.

Fire in Philadelphia.
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 18.—Fire broke out yesterday in the 5-story brick building occupied by P. O. Thompson, soap manufacturer, corner Swanson street and Washington avenue.

MONROE DOCTRINE UPHELD.

Senator Davis Delivers His Promised Speech in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The speech of Senator Davis of Minnesota supporting the resolution of which he is the author, enunciating the policy of the United States on the Monroe doctrine was the event of the day in the senate. There was added interest and significance in Mr. Davis' utterances as his resolution voiced the sentiments of a majority of the senate committee on foreign relations of which he is a member.

The public interest in the subject was evidenced by crowded galleries, the attendance being greater than at any time since the vote on the silver bond bill. Mr. Davis spoke for two hours and was accorded close attention throughout. The language was temperate and conservative and was not the radical utterance some had anticipated. Mr. Davis spoke with gratification of the reports coming from across the Atlantic that a settlement of the Venezuela trouble was likely to be effected, yet the senator declared with emphasis that the American people would never endorse a settlement based on concession of any feature of the Monroe doctrine.

While minimizing the possibilities of war, the senator said that a firm and explicit announcement of our policy to resist European encroachments would give the surest guaranty of peace. The rest of the day was given to the military academy appropriation bill which was under discussion when the senate adjourned.

The proposition of Mr. Vilas to increase the cadet appointments by two from each state, an aggregate of 90, brought out much debate, the prevailing sentiment being favorable to the increase.

A message from the house of representatives announced that the disagreement of that body in the senate silver substitute to the bond bill. No action was taken as to a conference.

In the House.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The agricultural appropriation bill occupied the attention of the house. A great deal of criticism of Secretary Morton was indulged in on both sides of the political aisle, but, as on Saturday, no one arose to his defense.

An amendment was pending when the house adjourned making mandatory the execution of the provision in the bill for the distribution of seed. It is understood that Mr. Cousins of Iowa will offer an amendment directing the secretary of the treasury to withhold the payment of Secretary Morton's salary until this provision was executed. An amendment appropriating $42,460 for a new edition of the "Horse book," was adopted.

Before the bill was taken up the senate amendments to the urgent deficiency bill were non-concurred in and a bill was passed for the examination and classification of lands in the railroad grants in California.

DISTURBANCE IN COREA.
Russia Has Made a Remarkable Coup and Captures the Government.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—The Times prints a dispatch from Kobe, Japan, which says:

News from Seoul, Corea, proves that Russia made a remarkable coup on the night of Feb. 10. On that night 200 Russian marines with a field gun were landed at Chemulpo and marched to Seoul. The king secretly left the palace for the Russian legation, whence he proclaimed his ministers guilty of treason. Two of the ministers were arrested and executed and the others fled. The Tai-Won-Kun (the father of the king) is a prisoner at the legation. An anti-Japanese ministry was then formed.

A bitter feeling has been aroused in Japan. A cabinet council was held attended by the military officials.

It is reported that the Russian minister declares that Russia was not responsible and that he merely afforded protection at the king's request. But it is believed that this precludes a Russian protectorate over Corea.

Confirmed at the Navy Department.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Secretary Herbert has received a cablegram from Captain McNair, commanding the Asiatic station, confirming the newspaper reports of the renewed disturbances in Corea. The cablegram was sent from Nagasaki, Japan, and is in the following words:

"Telegraphic information has been received from the commander of the Machias, via Che-Foo, China, as follows: 'There is much (great) excitement in Seoul, Corea. The king has gone to the Russian legation and ordered the arrest of the Korean cabinet. A guard has gone to Seoul, Corea. Telegraph wires have been cut. Two men have been killed.'"

At the Korean legation here it was said there had been no advices received touching the trouble referred to.

Cold in Canada.

Death of a Rubber Man.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Feb. 18.—John F. Holt died in this city yesterday, aged 72 years. He had been prominently connected with rubber interests for many years. He was well known here through his large and frequent gifts for charity.

FORFEITED BOND BIDS.

The Syndicate Wants Those Not Taken by Original Bidders.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The question of what disposition shall be made of the bonds upon which the allottees have defaulted by failing to make the required payment of 20 per cent on receipt of notice of the acceptance of their bids is now before the secretary of the treasury. The amount of these defaults has not yet been ascertained, nor is it expected that the exact amount will be learned before the middle and possibly the last of the week, when the reports from the several subtreasuries are expected to be in.

It is believed that the bid of William Graves and his associates of New York city for $4,500,000 at 115.3391, is by far the largest, and it is believed that the aggregate will not exceed this amount by more than $1,000,000 at the most.

Mr. J. P. Morgan has filed with Secretary Carlisle a claim on behalf of himself and associates to all defaulted allotments under his bid of $110,6877 and has deposited in the subtreasury at New York sufficient gold to cover them. The secretary within the last day or two has received a number of offers to take all bonds upon which default of payment has been made, at figures considerably in excess of the Morgan bid, but he is undoubtedly inclined to the opinion that under the terms of his circular of Jan. 6 he is inhibited from accepting any bid for bonds after that date and hence it follows that Mr. Morgan and his associates are very likely to get an amount considerably in excess of their first allotment.

The secretary, however, has not made an official decision on this point and does not expect to do so for several days.

Treasury Statement.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Heavy withdrawals of gold from the subtreasury at New York for use in future payments for bonds under the recent issue continue to be reported almost daily, and so far as can be learned there is no prospect of even a temporary cessation until the last installment shall have been paid. The withdrawals yesterday aggregated $1,424,600 in coin and $31,600 in bars, which leaves the true amount of the gold reserve $86,203,499. The gold deposits on bond account so far as officially reported up to the close of business yesterday was $71,430,649.

FIGHT FRIDAY.

Maher Will Meet Fitzsimmons No Matter What His Condition Is.

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 18.—The fight is now definitely set for Friday and Buck Connolly has agreed to post for Maher $1,000 additional forfeit if his man is not in the ring to fight on that day.

Julian demanded the $1,000 forfeit but finally turned the whole matter over to a committee of five, all of whom were to be named by Connolly. The committee decided against him and Julian gave in accordingly.

It is by no means certain that Maher would be able to fight on Friday, although he says he will get into the ring no matter what the condition of his eyes may be. They are still badly inflamed.

No Fighting in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, Feb. 18.—The federal authorities have given orders to arrest everybody connected with the fight if it comes off, and to exert every effort to prevent it. Governor Alameda is charged with carrying out this order. President Diaz is firm.

A DUTY ON WOOL.

Sherman Introduces the Resolution of the Ohio Legislature.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Senator Sherman introduced in the senate yesterday the joint resolution of the Ohio legislature instructing the Ohio delegation in congress to urge the passage of the bill to place a 50 per cent duty on wool.

Senators Sherman and Brice both presented resolutions from the Ohio legislature favoring the amendment to the constitution providing for the election of United States senators by the direct vote of the people.

Senator Sherman also presented a petition from the National Woman's Christian Temperance union, protesting against the passage of any measure to provide military instruction in the schools and also one from the women of Warren county, O., for the passage of a Sunday rest law.

MANDERSON IN THE RACE.

The Ex-Senator From Nebraska a Candidate For President.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The candidacy of ex Senator Charles F. Manderson of Nebraska for the Republican presidential nomination has been announced at the capital by several of his friends. General Manderson in conversation said that he had heretofore declined to break his silence upon the matter.

"For months past," said the senator, "I have received letters from all sections of the country urging me to enter the lists as a candidate. The letters came from comrades in the war of the rebellion, from associates in public life and in addition I received many personal requests from fellow-citizens in Nebraska. Before leaving home for Washington the urgency was of such emphatic character that I decided to make no further opposition and to remain passive. I can now simply say that under this urgency and the kindly encouragement that has followed it, I can do nothing but stand and wait."

The United States army has been compelled to garrison no less than 912 forts and important outposts against the Indians or other enemies.

BRAZEN PRISONERS.

Jackson and Walling Enjoying Themselves.

JOKING ABOUT THEIR CRIME.

Both Prisoners Laugh and Relate the Stories of Their Connection With the Crime—More Links Formed in the Chain of Evidence Scott Jackson's Mother Dying Requisition Papers.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 18.—That Jackson and Walling are the most brazen prisoners ever confined within the walls of the county jail there can be no doubt. From the time of their incarceration, they have treated the murder of poor Pearl Bryan as a huge joke, and, notwithstanding the circumstantial evidence that has accumulated, there has been no change in their conduct. Both prisoners laugh and ridicule the stories of their connection with the crime.

The evidence of George Jackson, the colored man who claims to have been the driver of the vehicle which conveyed Jackson, Walling and Pearl Bryan to Newport, does not seem to have had any effect on them. Both deny the story told by Jackson, but will not talk on the subject.

Detectives have found the gray horse and survey that Jackson described. It was in the stable of the Walnut Hills Cab company. The vehicle was hired out between 4 and 7 p. m., Jan. 31, and was returned at 4 a. m., Feb. 1. President Mullen of the cab company says that the man who hired it was about the size and general appearance of Walling, but, he thought, had a darker complexion. The carpet in the rockaway had blood spots on it, and a bloody pencil was found in it. The negro Jackson drove the horse, and says it is less spirited than the one he drove the night of the murder, but that it plunges forward and takes the bit in its mouth the same way. Later on he positively identified the vehicle as the one he drove the night of the murder.

Walling yesterday called Cell Officer Underwood to him and said that he wanted to tell him something and then stated that after Jackson had drugged the woman she showed signs of life and Jackson struck her in the head with a blunt instrument, rendering her unconscious. It was while in this condition that her head was cut off.

It is now the general belief that the woman was struck in the head, and for this reason the men are keeping the hiding place of the girl's head a secret.

The detectives have also learned that Pearl Bryan was kept at the Herman hotel in Newport on the night previous to her murder. After finding the driver and the survey used by Jackson and Walling in taking their victim from Cincinnati to the Kentucky highlands for decapitation, the officers are working in Newport. They have now a complete chain of evidence against Jackson and Walling, from the time Pearl Bryan came here from Greencastle, Ind., Monday, Jan. 27, till Friday night, Jan. 31, when she was murdered in a secluded spot between Fort Thomas and Newport, Ky.

Governor Bushnell will hear the requisition case this afternoon, after which there is no doubt of the transfer of the two suspects to Sheriff Plummer of Campbell county, Ky., who will hold them in the Newport jail. They are under indictment, and will have a speedy trial.

DYING OF GRIEF.

Scott Jackson's Poor Old Mother Searing Her End.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., Feb. 18.—This city is now as greatly excited over the murder of Pearl Bryan as it was the day the crime was discovered, and, in fact, the excitement grows worse hourly as new evidence is brought to light. The citizens have sent a petition to Governor Matthews asking him to offer a reward for the head of the dead girl.

Mrs. Jackson, the mother of one of the accused, is lying at the point of death, and it is doubtful if she will live 24 hours. Besides the nervous prostration with which she is suffering she also has heart disease. She has not closed her eyes in sleep since the arrest of her son, and the medicines that are given her to produce sleep do not have the desired effect. In her conscious moments she calls for her son, prays for him and asks to see his letters.

Rev. Wood has returned from Cincinnati and expresses a belief in his son's innocence and is getting testimony as to his good character.

No Reward From Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 18.—Governor Matthews has received the petition of citizens of Putnam county asking that he offer a reward in the name of the state for the recovery of the head of Pearl Bryan. He said that while he would be glad to render any assistance possible, it is not within his power to offer a reward. The petition is signed by several hundred Putnam county people.

Unknown Man's Dead Body Found.

CHATTANOOGA, Feb. 18.—An unknown man, supposed to be J. S. Williams, an iron moulder of Woodstock, Ala., was found dead near Woodstock yesterday, the body having been badly burned and mutilated. A party of negro tramps who had been seen in the vicinity are believed to have been the murderers and the jury of inquest so held. It is thought that after murdering their victim they tried to destroy the body by burning it in a log heap in order to destroy the evidence of their crime.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1896.

INDICATIONS—Fair and decidedly mild.

OVER two-thirds of the present session of the Legislature has expired, and only one bill has been sent to the Governor for approval. What do the tax-payers think of these Republican law-makers?

The Courier-Journal is rather sarcastic. It says: "The Republicans at Frankfort have made a beginning in redeeming Kentucky from Democratic misrule. They have at last succeeded in turning out a finished piece of legislation, duly signed by the Governor. This product of nearly forty days of labor is an act to repeal an act to regulate advertisements for sale of real estate in Morgan County."

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Feb. 15.—William Trouts, the barber, who lost his appetite some time ago, ate breakfast, his appetite suddenly returning. This is the first time food has passed into his stomach for the past sixty-eight days, he having lived entirely on buttermilk and worked every day.

The correspondent who penned the above is evidently not aware of the fact that milk is one of the greatest foods known, and contains more fully than any one other article all the elements necessary to sustain life. Mr. Trout's case is not such a remarkable one. One of Maysville's good Christian women, member of one of the city's best families, informs the BULLETIN that she lived for two years exclusively on milk, and she attributes her life and good health to-day solely to that fact.

Tax Notice.

The books for Delinquent Taxes are now in my hands, for collection of the taxes due thereon. All tax-payers are hereby notified that if their taxes are not paid on or before March 1st, 1896, the property will be advertised for sale, thus entailing extra expense upon them.

By order of Council.

"Wings on His Head."

Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat: "Mr. Hulicks can now retire from his third term race for Congress in this district. He has obtained distinction and can come home and feed on the public commons the rest of his life. Last Sunday's New York Times contains sketches of "Queer National Figures" and among them figures our own beloved George Washington. In speaking of his picture the Times says: 'Hulick, of Ohio, cultivates a funny pair of locks of hair, one on each side of the back of his head which is otherwise bald and shiny, the adornments justifying the description sometimes given him of the man with 'wings on his head.'"

Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra.

The constant increase in the attendance at the afternoon symphony concerts at Cincinnati shows that the people from neighboring towns are beginning to appreciate the advantage that is offered to them in these afternoon entertainments. The seventh of the series takes place on Friday, February 21st, and Saturday, February 22nd. The soloist is Miss Gertrude May Stein, one of the best contraltos in the country, who has appeared at many of the May Festivals. The program is:

Symphony, "Leonore".....Hoffman
Aria, "Lienzi".....Wagner
Miss Gertrude May Stein.
a. "The Last Sleep of the Virgin".....Massenet
b. Ballad and air, "Coppelia".....Debussy
Miss Stein.
Overture, "Sakuntala".....Goldmark

Kidnappers Relent.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., February 15.—L. C. DeLang, the alleged member of the A. P. A., who kidnapped Mary Kirk to prevent her parents from committing her to a Catholic reformatory, was to-day sent to jail by order of Judge Thompson, of the Police Court. Later some A. P. A.'s who had been in the City Court surrendered the girl. They said she had not been harmed, but alleged she was nineteen years of age and could do as she liked. They went before County Judge Richie and asked for the appointment of a guardian. Judge Richie deferred action until he could learn if the motives prompting the A. P. A. members were good. Some of the A. P. A.'s who made a demonstration in the City Court when DeLang was brought from jail and discharged, after the girl had been surrendered, were fined for contempt of court.

NO SENATOR YET.

Monday's Ballot Showed No Change.
A Democratic Bolt Threatened.

The Kentucky Legislature took the twenty-fourth ballot for U. S. Senator Monday, but there was no election. The roll call disclosed the presence of 106 members, making 54 votes necessary to a choice. Senators Carpenter, Bowling and Hissem, Republicans, again voted for Judge Holt, and Rummans, Republican, voted for Mr. Cochran. The remainder of the ballot brought no change. The result of the ballot was: Hunter 48, Blackburn 49, scattering 9.

The correspondent of the Lexington Leader says: "A Democratic member of the Lower House, who has been a leader on that side, says he is disgusted with Blackburn, who he says realizes the impossibility of his own election but stands a stumbling block in the way of everybody else. This member is authority for the statement that a break may occur in Blackburn's lines the latter part of this or the first of next week. At least one Democratic member has declared his intention to vote for ex-Governor Brown some time soon unless Blackburn gives real assurances that he can win. It is also intimated that Poor and Edgington will both unite on Brown. The effect of this would most likely be a stampede to Brown. Representative White, of Hardin County, is supposed to be the one who will lead the break to Brown."

Sena'or Rummans is very active in his fight against Dr. Hunter, the Republican nominee, and is bending every effort to force the doctor off the track.

Governor Bradley Monday sent to the Senate the nomination of A. H. Anderson, of Hopkinsville, to be Steward at the Western Asylum in place of John W. Postell, colored, whose appointment was rejected by the Senate Friday. The nomination was referred to the Committee on Charitable Institutions, and will no doubt be confirmed. Mr. Anderson is a resident of Hopkinsville, a member of the Republican State Committee for the Second district, and a worthy gentleman.

But little business was transacted in either the House or Senate Monday towards enacting needed legislation.

The amendment to the game law prohibits the killing of quail for two years, and after that the time for hunting quail will be from November 1 to January 1.

Make Yourself Strong

If you would resist pneumonia, bronchitis, typhoid fever and persistent coughs and colds. These ills attack the weak and run-down system. They can find no foothold where the blood is kept pure, rich and full of vitality, the appetite good and digestion vigorous, with Hood's Sarsaparilla, the one true blood purifier.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache.

Druggists' Liquor License.

The Court of Appeals, in its recent decision on this subject, says:

First—The statute requiring of druggists a license fee of fifty dollars for the privilege of retailing spirituous and vinous liquors is a valid exercise by the State of the police power. In view of the cost of prosecutions for the many violations of such a statute it can not be said that the license fee is too high.

Second—The license is not required to authorize the druggist in good faith to fill the prescription of the physician or his own prescription where spirituous or vinous liquor is merely one of the ingredients.

Third—Under the license the druggist may sell in quantities not less than a quart without the prescription of a physician, but where he retails in quantities less than a quart it must be for medicinal purposes only and the prescription of a regular practicing physician.

How much business can a man do whose system is in a state of disorder? Headache is only a symptom. It is not a disease. The pain in the head is the sign of rebellion. There have been mistakes in diet and other abuses.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a gentle, effective renovator and invigorator of stomach, liver and bowels. They assist nature without threatening to tear the body piece-meal. There are no gripping pains, no nausea. One is a laxative.

A book of 1,008 pages, profusely illustrated, written by Dr. R. V. Pierce, called "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" will be sent free for 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only. World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 233 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

The oldest native-born citizen of Maysville is Mr. Conrad Rudy and the next is Uncle Jake Outten. "Judge" William Campbell is a good third.

The Ledger's statement is not correct. Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, of Sixth street, a sister of the late Joseph Frank, is the oldest native-born citizen of Maysville. She was born in 1814, and consequently is now in her eighty-second year.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whisky nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents per bottle at J. James Wood's drug store.

Tired Women

Find in the blood purifying, building-up qualities of Hood's Sarsaparilla just what they need. Mrs. Isa Griggs of Ennis, Texas, gives her experience below: "I suffered almost death with local troubles, which developed into a very serious affection and made a surgical operation necessary. I was completely broken down, had numerous boils, and when I commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I weighed only 112 pounds. Now I weigh over 125 pounds and am in better health than for the past fifteen years. Formerly I was covered with eruptions; now my skin is clear. I can truly say Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal for poor run-down women. Every one remarks about how well I am looking." MRS. ISA GRIGGS.

Mr. J. D. Muse Meets With a Painful Accident in a Runaway at Charleston, W. Va.

Mr. J. D. Muse, of this city, met with a painful accident yesterday at Charleston, W. Va.

Mr. Muse is a commercial traveler, representing the Forward Shoe Company of Cincinnati.

While at Charleston yesterday, a team drawing a conveyance in which he was riding ran off, and in the smashup one of his legs was broken.

A telegram from Mr. George W. Childs, who was also in Charleston at the time, brought the news of the accident to Mr. Muse's family and friends, and stated that the injured man was in the hospital.

Mr. Muse's friends will regret to learn of his misfortune.

STATE INSPECTOR AND EXAMINER C. W. LESTER has completed his examination of the Lexington Lunatic Asylum, and has recommended to the House Committee on Charitable Institutions that the per capita for the inmates of the asylum be reduced from $150 to $137.50. He will examine the other asylums at once, and it is thought probable that a like reduction will be recommended for them.

MR. MARK F. KEHOE, of this city, who was elected International Canvasser of the Cigar Maker's Union, left for Chicago Sunday afternoon to enter upon the duties of his office. He will be absent about six weeks, and was accompanied to the train by quite a number of the members of the union. The members of the unions in Cincinnati desired to know when Mr. Kehoe would leave for Chicago, intending to give a banquet in honor of the International Canvasser, but Mr. Kehoe is too modest and preferred to go quietly to his post of duty. This is the second time Mr. Kehoe has been thus honored by his co-laborers.

THAT BRACKEN TRAGEDY.

Laughlin Repeats His Confession of the Horrible Crime—Thought to be Crazy.

The terrible triple crime committed by Robert Laughlin near Augusta last Friday night was the talk of the town Monday. People were shocked in the extreme by the sickening details of the tragedy.

Laughlin was only too glad to get behind the bars of the Maysville jail. When first seen after he was locked up he didn't appear to fully realize the enormity of his crime, but during the day he repeated his confession to a number of parties, among them Judge Hutchins, County Attorney Adair, Detective Fitzgerald, Mr. Charles Gray, of Augusta, and representatives of the Cincinnati and Louisville papers. As the full story was brought out in response to repeated questioning, the realization of the enormity of his offense seemed to grow upon him, and as night drew near he became so unstrung that he trembled as one in a chill, and could hardly grasp the bars of his cell.

The reports from Augusta caused some uneasiness on the part of the officials. There were many rumors that a mob from Bracken would come up and attempt to lynch Laughlin during the night. There was some talk of Judge Hutchins ordering a guard of one hundred men summoned to protect the prisoner and resist any attempt at lynching. Judge Hutchins stated that if it should become necessary to prevent a lynching, he would have "Old Zollicoffer" brought out and turned loose on any mob that defied the officers.

The night passed, however, and no mob put in an appearance. If a mob had come they would unquestionably have met with a warm reception, as all the officials here are determined to resist to the last any resort to lynch law.

But had a mob come and effected an entrance to the jail they would not have found Laughlin. Out of abundant precaution, the prisoner, under an order from the proper authorities, spent the night under the care of Sheriff Jefferson and some assistants; just where it is not necessary to say, but not in the county jail.

Monday afternoon it was found that Laughlin's commitment to the jail here was under an order of Police Judge Wallace of Augusta, who had no authority to make such a transfer of a prisoner. On the advice of Commonwealth's Attorney Sallee, and in order to cure the irregularity, the accused was brought out before Judge Hutchins. George W. Sulser, Esq., was appointed to appear for him. He asked that the case be continued until 10:30 this morning when Laughlin expected his regular attorney to be present.—Mr. Doniphan, of Augusta. This was done, and the accused was then recommitted to jail.

Laughlin is very much afraid of a mob. He said to Detective Fitzgerald yesterday: "I would have confessed last Saturday to you, but I was afraid of the crowd."

Laughlin will no doubt set up the plea of insanity, and try to escape the death penalty. Many people think no sane man could have committed such a crime.

All the Cincinnati papers had members of their reportorial staff here yesterday writing up the developments of the case. They sat up until 3 o'clock this morning looking for the mob that didn't come.

Laughlin spent the night at Mayslick in the custody of Sheriff Jefferson, Deputy Sheriff Perrine and Constable Dawson. He was returned to jail this morning.

Laughlin was again brought out before Judge Hutchins at 10:30 this morning. His attorney waived examination and the accused was recommitted to jail to await the orders of the County Judge of Bracken.

SPEED'S SCHOOL BOOK BILL.

An Important Measure Now Pending in the Kentucky Legislature.

Representative R. C. Speed from Jefferson County has introduced an important bill in the House, looking to the getting of cheaper school books for children. His idea, in order to get cheaper text books, and thus lessen the burden now felt so heavily by parents of moderate means with children to educate, is to invite proposals from authors of text books as to the price of the books and the royalty.

The Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners are authorized to have the Public Printer to do the work of printing and binding the text books at the rate at which he has already agreed to do other State printing. The books are to be sold to the public at cost. It is believed by many educators of prominence in the State that the passage of the bill will mean cheaper school books and a more uniform price.

The bill is entitled "An Act for the Benefit of Common Schools of This State," and reads as follows:

Be it enacted, That the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund be and are hereby constituted a board to receive proposals from authors of text books to be used in common schools in this State.

The proposals shall be made in duplicate. First stating the price of each work complete, second, the price of franchise or royalty. The above board may then exercise the right to have the work done by the Public Printer and sold to the public at cost prices.

The State board shall supplement all county boards in reference to books.

And all other acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Congressman Pugh.

Says the Lexington Leader's Washington correspondent: "Judge Pugh is another one of the Kentucky delegation that is paying strict attention to business. He has made arrangements with the Rivers and Harbors Committee, of which Col. Berry is a member, to stop off on the proposed trip down the Ohio at Catlettsburg and examine the mouth of the Big Sandy. They have also promised to look into the complaint of citizens at Russell, in Greenup County, that the Ohio miners and mill men are dumping vast amounts of cinders into the Ohio river, causing the current to change to the Kentucky side, and undermining the town of Russell. Judge Pugh offered a protest against any of his constituents being washed down the Ohio. Judge Pugh, with other friends of the measure, went before the Committee on War Claims Friday and enacted a promise to report favorably the bill in behalf of the hook agents of the M. E. Church, South. The claim involves about $238,000 and is for the destruction of that denomination's publishing house at Memphis, Tenn., during the late war."

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

Very Large Receipts and Sales—Increased Strength Shown Last Week

The following is furnished by Glover & Durrett, of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse:

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 5,382 hhds. with receipts for the same period 5,001 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 27,999 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1895 on our market to this date amount to 28,713 hhds.

We continue to have extremely large receipts and sales of new burley tobacco on our market. The sales last week included some very desirable leaf and frequent sales of such have been made at prices ranging from $15 to $19.50 per hundred, with medium to good leaf selling from $10 to $15 per hundred.

The market during the week has shown increased strength for both lugs and common to medium leaf of the full bodied red type, but has been weaker for the common and medium grades of light, thin tobacco. The percentage of very common grades, damaged by frost, freezing or house burn, has been very large in the recent offerings and prices for such are lower than at any time since the opening of the season, many hhds. having sold during the week from $5c to $12.25 per hundred.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco, (1895) crop:

Trash (dark or damaged).....	2.00@4.00
Common color trash.....	2.00@4.00
Medium to good color trash.....	4.00@6.00
Common lugs, not colored.....	2.00@4.00
Common color lugs.....	4.00@7.00
Medium to good color lugs.....	7.00@9.00
Common to medium leaf.....	8.00@10.00
Medium to good leaf.....	8.00@15.00
Good to fine leaf.....	15.00@18.00
Select wrapper leaf.....	18.00@22.00

The above quotations are not applicable to green and frosted crops.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

But Slight Change Noted Last Week. Receipts of the New Increasing.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company, in its circular for the week, has the following:

The tobacco trade still continues in about the same condition, and, while it fluctuates considerably, the general averages show very little change. The receipts of the new crop are increasing, and, while the quality is very inferior, there is some excellent tobacco, and it is coming into competition with the old crop very fast, and especially with the low grades.

The better grades of the old crop have been in demand, and prices have advanced, and no doubt the small quantity of good tobacco in the new crop has made the manufacturers feel the necessity of advancing the prices on good tobacco in order to supply their demands. Sales have proved more satisfactory to shippers than for some time past, while the mediums and low grades have shown no particular change, but have been fluctuating considerably, and with the competition of the new, we see very little in the future on these grades.

The country purchasers have been doing little so far, as the market does not justify the price asked, but are waiting until there is a settled market, so they can have some assurance in getting their money back.

We attribute the fluctuations in the market to the offerings, as it has become a custom in the last year to make only two sales days (Wednesday and Thursday), when the offerings are overcrowded and break the market every time. If our shippers would divide their sales into four days in the week there is no doubt the market would be more steady and better prices obtained. If the sellers would commence to distribute the sales it would prove a benefit all around, and our market would remain more steady and, as the past week has proved that the light offerings on Tuesday and Friday were the best, we would advise using these two days for good prices.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

BAD TIMES?

Well, we should say so. Those Clocks and Watches are too badly out of fix to be of any use. They've lost their time entirely. You'll lose your time, too, if you're unprovided with good clocks and watches. We have a full supply of both, all accurate time-keepers and in perfect order. Better Watches than ours are not manufactured. Whatever the price of any watch we carry, it's the best of its kind and a full value. Get a timepiece; get the best; get ours.
